4-Nights in Grand Class Presidential Suite at Grand Velas Riviera Maya

Activities while in Riviera Maya:

Microadventure to Chichén Itzá - The resort's micro-adventure to Chichén Itzá, undoubtedly the most famous Mayan ruins, features a private tour guide to explore the complex, the largest pre-Columbian city built by the Maya people which was first developed between 750 and 900 AD. Also at the site, guests will be treated to a 3-course lunch menu of regional favorites and swimming in a cenote (a large, natural sink hole).

Sunset VanDutch Experience - Along with a socially distanced ride along the azure Mexican Caribbean Coast aboard the opulent VanDutch 40, the experience includes a visit to an underwater museum, watersports and evening firework show. A multi-course, gourmet menu from Mexico's Best Chef and wide selection of premium mezcals and tequilas are some of the culinary highlights of the trip.

Mystic Mayan Spa Night at SE Spa - The experience includes a lineup of wellness, culinary, and entertainment offerings inspired by ancestral Mayan traditions. From 8 to 11 pm, guests can partake in the resort's acclaimed Hydrotherapy Ritual, a seven-step water journey where guests can enjoy a eucalyptus-scented steam room with chromotherapy, polar pool, aromatherapy sensory shower, clay room, ice room, and more. The evening also includes a live performance from dancers dressed in traditional Mayan garments with music by snail drums and copal auric cleansing by Mayan shamans.

Gourmet Cenote Experience - A unique opportunity to dine 60ft underground in one of the destination's relatively undiscovered cenotes. The experience begins with a private tour of the 130 ft cavern of countless stalagmites and stalactites at Chukum Cenote and a dip in its crystal-clear waters. Following, Maître Cuisinier de France Michel Mustiere, Culinary Director of Velas Resorts, will present a three-course gourmet lunch curated based on personal preference. The lunch will be accompanied by a tasting of ancestral drinks like bacanora, sotol, tuxca, and pox. Guests will learn how these ancestral recipes came to be and how they are being reinvented and reintroduced to a modern palate with cocktail recipes.

Cooking Class with Chef Michel Mustière, Maître Cuisinier de France - With more than 25 years of culinary experience in various countries and different prestigious restaurants and hotels worldwide, Michel Mustière is one of only 10 chefs in Mexico to attain the prestigious Master Chef of France title. As Culinary Director of Velas Resorts, he spearheads everything from new menu development and culinary events with visiting chefs to "foodie" experiences and the team of executive chefs in the resorts' 22 gourmet restaurants, from French and Asian, to Mexican, Italian, and contemporary tasting venue, Cocina de Autor.

Set on the beautiful agave plantations along the mineral rich red soils, a Mexican picnic in the agave fields at the Hacienda San Matías is also served, paired with San Matías' finest tequilas. World's Most Expensive Taco - Available at the resort's Frida restaurant, the $25K USD culinary masterpiece includes such premium ingredients as langoustine, Kobe beef, Almas Beluga caviar and black truffle brie cheese. It is believed that the indigenous Damiana helps alleviate symptoms from various medical conditions such as anxiety, chronic headaches, depression, more. Following the scrub, the spa therapist will offer a massage with Damiana-infused lotion. The treatment is finished with an acupressure facial and head massage, which aims to strengthen muscles, release tension, and relieve sinus congestion. At the end of the treatment, guests can enjoy a cup of Damiana-infused hot tea, further incorporating the plant into the spa experience.
